

General information

Each exchange student may apply for a place in the University dormitories. You can choose your accommodation in the ePASS system. It is enough to tick the kind of room you wish to have in the ePASS system. The places will be allocated on the 'first come, first served' principle. Dormitories are located in 3 cities of the region (Katowice, Sosnowiec, Cieszyn); therefore, accommodation is suggested according to the faculty.

Find your faculty and decide where you want to stay.

A dormitory is called 'Dom Studenta', or 'DS'. Generally, rooms contain bedding but no dishes or cutlery. In every room there is access to the Internet. Kitchen, laundry, television and computer rooms are available for general use.

The standard of rooms varies and there is only a limited number of single rooms. Therefore, rooms are allocated on a 'first-come, first-served' basis. The number of students entering University of Silesia in Katowice every year is large. The prices may change from the first of September each year.

Please note!

The charge for the room is calculated from the declared date of arrival.

Upon arrival students must pay in advance for the first month of their stay. For the following months the payments should be made at the end of the month.

Dear student, please, remember to announce the day of your departure from the dormitory in advance.

Rooms for the disabled (barrier-free rooms) are available in:

- Dom Studenta nr 2 (Student Dormitory no. 2) on the Campus in Katowice
- Dom Studenta nr 3 (Student Dormitory no. 3) on the Campus in Sosnowiec
